

Sunday Best Quiltworks

Photos from Quilt Market
Houston, Texas
October 8-13, 2009

Picture from our hotel window of the Toyota center next door.

Teresa & Linda with Jacqueline de Jonge from the Netherlands with her beautiful new quilt in the background. We so enjoyed talking with her and her brother. What down to earth nice people!

Our table at sample spree Friday night.

This was the view down the aisle we were on at market.

This is a picture of a beautiful booth by Quilt Poetry.
We purchased several of her patterns!

Jane of Quilt Poetry - What a nice person!

Our booth when it was finished.

Linda and our good friend Suzanne Davenport.
We couldn't have done it without her!

Loralyn Dyson - We met this wonderful lady the first night we arrived in Houston (in the elevator of all places!). We enjoyed hanging out with her and have promised to keep in touch.

Anne - This is Anne Berendse from the Netherlands. We enjoyed talking with her and sending her home with a set of our stencils!

Irish quilters - Linda with the ladies from Irish Quilter's magazine. They are taking home our stencils also along with one of our quilts to be featured in their magazine!!!!
